Re: Notice of Oral Ex Parte Presentation
WT Docket No. 10-119

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On April 13, 2017, Chuck Powers from Motorola Solutions, Inc. ("MSI") and I met with Rachael Bender, Legal Advisor to Chairman Pai; Erin McGrath, Legal Advisor to Commissioner O'Rielly; and Daudeline Meme, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Clyburn to discuss issues raised in the Commission proceeding to review the rules governing the Personal Radio Services authorized under Part 95 of the rules.¹

MSI highlighted the following positions that were fully discussed in previously filed comments² and ex partes³:

- GMRS portable units operating at 2 watts or less ERP should be authorized by rule.
- The FCC should allow the transmission of GPS location information and user-generated text messages over the GMRS frequencies. Automatic or periodic transmissions should be allowed rather than only manually triggered.

¹ See Review of the Commission's Part 95 Personal Radio Services Rules, WT Docket No. 10-119, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and Memorandum Opinion and Order on Reconsideration, 25 FCC Rcd 7651 (2010).

² Comments of Motorola, Inc., WT Docket No. 10-119, filed September 3, 2010 and . Motorola Solutions has previously participated in this proceeding under the corporate name Motorola, Inc. On January 4, 2011, Motorola, Inc. completed the separation of its Mobile Devices and Home businesses and changed its name to Motorola Solutions, Inc.

³ Letter from Michael A. Lewis, representing Motorola Solutions, Inc., to Marlene H. Dortch, Sec'y, Federal Communications Commission, WT Docket No. 10-119, filed June 8, 2015.

- During the meeting, MSI further added that text messages containing GPS coordinates would typically occupy a GMRS channel for approximately 1 to 2 seconds so allowing periodic transmissions every 30 or 60 seconds should not result in channel congestion.

This notification is submitted in accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206. Please let me know if there are any questions about this submission.

Sincerely,

/s/ Edward "Smitty" Smith
